HI FRIENDS SEND SUPPORT

HALF TERM EVENTS

As we approach half term I thought it might be helpful to put together a list of local events and activities - hopefully there will be something to suit everyone!

However, if your half term ends up being spent mostly at home with endless screen time and snacks on tap, that's absolutely ok too! Sometimes keeping things simple and doing whatever gets us all through the week is more than enough. Whatever half term looks like for your family, I hope you have a lovely one.
